Mr. Darsie will occupy his pulpit at the Christian Church to-morrow morning and night as usual.

The carpenter who has in his possession the specifications of the Belle Point School-house and Chapel is requested to return them to Judge W. L. Pence.

Judge R. E. Gaines was re-elected Monday as police judge of Belle Point. He came under the string in a trot although Judge W. L. Pence was his competitor.

Mr. Edwin Ward, the contractor for the erection of the reservoir, who has been very ill at Mr. F. D. Reddish's the past two weeks, died Tuesday afternoon. The remains were taken to Belle Fontaine, Ohio, for interment.

Mr. A. Albritton walked into the livery stable of Mr. R. H. Williams Sunday night, and in the dark stepped on a cob or stick, which rolled under him, throwing him to the ground and fracturing one of the bones of his right leg.

Mr. Luther Crutcher killed a white crane, on the farm of Mr. James Mar, this Monday afternoon, which measured four feet four inches from its toe to end of bill and five feet from tip to tip of wings. It weighed but twenty-seven ounces.

The badge of the Aztec Club recently presented to Mr. Jas. K. O'Hara, the oldest male heir of his uncle, Col. Theodore O'Hara, who was one of the original founders of the Society in the City of Mexico, is on exhibition at the jewelry establishment of Mr. Phil. Seibert.

The Governor has ordered the flag on the Arsenal in this city and on the armories throughout the State placed at half-mast to-day, and that guns be fired every fifteen minutes in this city, Louisville and Lexington, from sunrise until sunset, when a national salute of 38 guns will be fired, in honor of General U. S. Grant, whose remains will be buried in New York City to-day. The colored people of the city held a memorial meeting at the St. John's A. M. E. Church, last night at which eulogies were pronounced and appropriate resolutions adopted.

The return match between the Lexington and Spring Hill Gun Clubs was shot Tuesday afternoon on the grounds of the latter, near this city, and resulted in a victory for the home boys by a score of 176 to 157. The members of the Lexington Club came down on the 157 train and got off at Spring Hill, when the match began at once. A high wind was prevailing, which made the shooting very uncertain at the beginning of the shoot, and before it was half over a heavy shower of rain came up, causing a stoppage of nearly an hour, and when operations began again the trap was broken and had to be sent off to be mended, so owing to the delays it was nearly dark before the match was concluded. Our boys took the lead from the start and held it to the close, though at times the Lexington boys were close up, only four or five birds difference. Below we give the SCORE.

Counterfeiting a Valuable Article

The publisher of the Madison County Review dwrites from Huntsville, Ark., as to the effects of Brown's Iron Bitters on his wife. Mr. Daugherty says, "My wife has been using the Bitters for some months; the effect in her case is remarkable." He also writes that owing to counterfeiters and imitations, it was difficult to get the genuine article. "That difficulty has now been remedied; imitations have been exposed and put to flight. There, as elsewhere, Brown's Iron Bitters can be had of all the respectable druggists at a dollar a bottle."

Mr. Robert Gordon, of this city, and Miss Emma Shaw, of Jeffersonville, Indiana, were married Tuesday at the residence of the bride's parents.

The election in this county on Monday resulted as follows: For State Treasurer—Jas. W. Tate (Dem.), 1,583; P. T. Fox (Prohib.), 245. For State Senator—L. W. McKee (Dem.), 1,272; A. G. Brawner (Dem.), 447. For Representative—S. I. M. Major (Dem.), 1,532; Dr. S. F. Smith (Prohib.), 384. For County Clerk—N. B. Smith (Dem.), 1,564; R. C. Steele (Ind. Dem.), 455. For Constitutional Convention, 631.

Messrs. C. W. Threlkeld and James Lyon were elected Magistrates in the Forks of Elk Horn district without opposition.

An excursion train will be run from this city to Beard's Station to-morrow to give everyone who wishes to attend an opportunity to visit Kavanaugh Camp Meeting. The train will leave here at 8:15 in the morning and returning will leave Beard's at 5:30 p. m. The round trip fare will be $1.40.

Monday evening, about dusk, Mr. Jas. W. Hughes started to the river to go in bathing with his son Leonard, and nephew Brent, son of Mr. B. S. Hughes, of the Farmdale neighborhood, in that portion of the river known as Back of Brown's. The boys started on ahead of Mr. Hughes and he told them not to go in the water until he got there, but they both went on, and Brent, having undressed rapidly, jumped into the water and swam out some distance from shore. Just before Mr. Hughes reached the bank he heard his nephew call out, and looking in his direction saw him sink below the surface never to rise again. Mr. James Ham, who was near by, immediately swam out to where the unfortunate youth was last seen, dived down and succeeded in securing the body and every effort was made to restore him to life, but without avail. Brent was about fifteen years of age and had only come to town that day to spend a week with his cousin. His parents were notified and the remains taken out to his home that night. He was a bright promising youth and his untimely death is a great blow to his afflicted parents.

The Truthful Witness.

I will begin in the next issue of the Witness to canvass the subject, Local Option in this county. Let everybody, Democrat and Republican, help to circulate the Witness. I only ask 50 cents a year for it.

I have enlisted in the war against the demon strong drink, and I have drawn my sword to do battle until my Heavenly Captain bids me to lay my armor down.

I will furnish five copies of the Witness one year for $2, or ten copies for $5.75.

A Stubborn Case of Scrofula.

I have been afflicted with scrofula from my infancy, and in consequence have always been a frail and delicate creature. I might truthfully say that I was raised chiefly on mercury and potash. These remedies for the time being would dry up the fearful ulcers with which I suffered, but they would return with greater violence. I was the merest shadow as to form and person. My digestion was all deranged, and my existence was most wretched. Everything that could be done for me was done, but no permanent benefit was derived. At last a great tumor came on my neck below the left ear. It increased in size until my head was forced to the right shoulder, and in this ungainly and uncomfortable position, I was compelled to carry my head. The doctors decided that it was there to stay as long as life continued, and for many years it did remain. In March, 1884, at the suggestion of Colonel John Taylor I was induced to try Swift's Specific. My system responded to the medicine promptly, and I began to improve from almost the first bottle. That fearful tumor has all disappeared, and every appearance of the disease has left my person except a small hard lump on the right side of my neck, and that is disappearing rapidly. From a fragile little girl I have developed into a healthy and robust young lady as there is in the neighborhood. Swift's Specific is the only remedy that has ever given me any permanent relief and I am in better health and weigh more than I ever did in my life before. My old friends scarcely recognize me since this wonderful change has been wrought in my appearance. My gratitude is unbounded for what this medicine has done for me.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second class mail matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.

Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, AUGUST 8, 1885.

We were shown Tuesday, by Mr. Jas. M. Saffell, Grand Commander of Knights Templar, an exceedingly beautiful jewel ordered by the Grand Commandery of Kentucky to be presented to Miss Mollie Stephenson, of Louisville, a former inmate of the Masonic Home, for the largest number of subscribers obtained for the Masonic Home Journal. It consists of a nine-pointed gold star, about three inches across from point to point, beautifully chased, and in the center of the star is a cross and crown, the crown being set with pearls and diamonds, and every other point of the star holding a diamond. On the reverse side of the star is a wreath with the words "For securing the largest number of subscribers to the Masonic Home Journal." The star is suspended by two gold chains from a beautiful bar with pin attached on the front of the bar is engraved "Miss Mollie Stephenson," and at each end a red enamel Maltese cross. On the reverse side is engraved "Presented by the Grand Commandery of Kentucky and Grand Commander Jas. M. Saffell and J. W. Pruett, G. J. W." The Grand Commandery appropriated twenty-five dollars for the purpose, which was supplemented by Messrs. Saffell and Pruett with twenty-five more, and experts who have examined this beautiful piece of work say the man who made it lost money if he did not charge $75 for it.

The work was executed by a firm in Covington and certainly is a great credit to the house. Mr. Saffell will go to Louisville next week to present it to Miss Mollie and several of the boys will go along to hold Jim's hat while he makes his speech.

The map of the State published by the "Kentucky Geological Survey," is a very interesting study, and partly, thirty so locally, or Frankfortly speaking. We see from the map before us that the lowest formation appearing in the State is the "Lower Silurian." This formation is confined to that portion of the State world famous as the "Blue Grass" region, and drained by the Kentucky and Licking rivers, and is subdivided into No. 1 and No. 2. No. 2, or the upper layer, covering the greater part of said region and No. 1, or lower strata, technically called "Birdseye Limestone," appearing in a most contracted area, beginning some miles above Frankfort and closely hugging the Kentucky river until it has its depressed apex a few miles below Frankfort.

The local interest referred to is in the fact, that all the nationally known, and prize-appreciated, whiskeys on the markets of the country are made within a radius of 12 to 15 miles of the capital. Instances, "O. F. C." "Old Crow," "Bond & Lillard" and "McBryer." We cannot call to mind any brand of whiskey made without this radius that approaches in celebrity the brands named. Whiskey statistics approve of the above references, and geology gives to the contracted area the peculiar quality of water that has given to the trade that high grade of sour mash, of which we have named the to-day leading brands.

During the time that the water is kept at a low stage in this pool freight for the Bluewing and Hornet will be carried down to the Lock in barges. The boats will still continue to run on their regular time.

The world is full of sorrow and crime because of the drinking habit, mothers and wives with broken hearts and bowed heads, hoping, praying, striving to save their loved ones from destruction. Suffer and pray, ye sorrowing ones. God will hear, though man like the deaf adder, stoppeth his ears to your entreaties for help. Preachers will take themselves hoarse about the love of money, but breaking, stealing, lying, and so on to the end of the catalogue of sins, but it is very seldom they have the courage to speak the truth and strike at the "root of all evil," the one thing that makes a demon of man, and will cause him to violate every law of God and man. Men engaged in the liquor traffic for the sake of the money to be made by it, but that cannot be said of those who drink it, for it is well known that money is never to be found with those who make a habit of drinking, and that is not the worst of it, in most cases, health, friends, reputation goes with the money. As there is nothing to be gained, and every thing to be lost by drinking, yes, and the most dreadful of all, the loss of the immortal soul, why is it that men, age, women too, will not give more heed to a subject of such vital importance.

Louisville Tobacco Market.

FURNISHED BY GLOVER & DUBRETT LOUISVILLE WAREHOUSE.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 5 1888.
The sales on our market for the month just closed, amount to 12,221 hhds., and Common Leaf (not colly), 7,500 to 8,000 yds. last, amount to 86,733 hhds. The figures speak for themselves, and place the Louisville tobacco market far in the lead of all rivals.
The market during the month has improved some in prices on common, medium, and good grades of Burley tobacco, but fine or fancy Burley leaf shows some decline since the latter part of June, when frequent sales were made at prices ranging from $20 to $25 per hundred.
The rains this summer have been generally local in their character, and some neighborhoods are suffering severely from drought, but the greater part of the Burley region has been visited by good rains within the past two weeks and the tobacco crop, while not far advanced for the time of year, may be said to be in fairly good condition. The following quotations fairly represent our market for Burley tobacco:
Dark Trash.....$4.25 to $4.75
Colony Trash.....5.00 to 5.00
Common Lugs.....4.50 to 5.50
Bright Colony Lugs.....7.50 to 9.50
Common Leaf (not colly).....7.50 to 8.50
Med. to Good Leaf (not colly).....9.00 to 12.00
Good to Good Leaf (colly).....10.00 to 15.00
Good to Fine Leaf.....15.00 to 19.00
Fancy Leaf.....19.00 to 25.00
